Immanuel	N15		Missionary Siebert Liebler: Vocabulary Originally attributed by Max Lohe to Siebert, but since identified as Liebler		Arrernte and German
			Unfinished copy of German to Arrernte Vocabulary attributed to Oskar Liebler, trained at Neuendettelsau. Hermannsburg Mission 1910-1913. Under each letter, items appear ordered by word-class: firstly nouns then adjectives and finally verbs.
			English translation of German inscription at beginning of vocabulary: "H Strehlow [H for Herr?] often writes u for o, u for a; "tj" should often be used in place of just "j"; Comment: under each letter words are in the following order: 1. nouns, 2: adjectives etc, finally 3: verbs'
	N15		Missionary O. Liebler: Sermons Two books.	1910	Arrernte German Shorthand
	N15		Arrernte Order of Service C. Strehlow	Not dated	Arrernte
			Manuscript. Brown hardcover item, spine inscribed 312.511. Cover inscribed with following details: 312.520 Finke River Mission Arrernte order of services by C Strehlow. Accession number ml 8/76. Individual sermon pages have been removed from the cover (or were originally loose?) and placed into individual plastic sleeves - each page has also been photocopied. A researcher has appended some extra notations for specific parts of the liturgy.
			"Pages showing the Gloria in Excelsis in four-part harmony, where 'P' denotes parts spoken by Pastor. Parts spoken by the congregation are indicated by "W": wurle, "multitude". The choice of wurle for congregation harks back to Luther's definition of the Church as an assembly or gathering, "Gemeinde" or "Versammlung", derived from the original Greek Ecclesia, meaning assembly of the people. " [C Stockigt 16/2/2018]

Report issues March 1961 Foreword is as follows 'This monograph was prepared in Welfare Branch Northern Territory Administration, using in the main source material drawn from Administration records in Darwin and Alice springs. The articles at Appendix were provided by Rev FW Albrecht, MBE of the Finke River Mission, Alice Springs. Their presentation separately is prompted by the belief that, as a series they are of historical as well as general interest.'	1961
			The book also contains a report at the end of the Pintubi Aboriginal Reserve Central Australia issued by the Welfare Branch in March 1961.
			Inserted and bound into the volume is a typed/printed note written by Albrecht titled 'To the Readers of the Hermannsburg Monograph' explaining the purpose, intent, errors and omissions of the report as it was prepared by the Welfare Branch. Contains a disclaimer that the volume is not a mission publication.
